

The tutorial Action Plan of the Faculty of Veterinary give to students adequate tools and resources to optimize the process of teaching and learning, enhance their autonomy and facilitate the maturation of their personal and professional project. The tutorial, developed at various levels and by various actors, helps students in integrating higher education or in the transition from undergraduate to master's studies and the professional world as

Tutorials include several moments of action:

- Information sessions about master's and postgraduate taught at the Faculty of Veterinary requirements for access, duration and career opportunities.

- Initial orientation sessions for master students. It is a day of presentation of the master and the student will be presented to the Masters and the services of the UAB: Language Service, Physical Activity, Libraries, Computing Service, Department of Student Participation . Later students can do tutorials for the implementation of the Final Masters Work, with the coordinator of this module.

- Ongoing orientation sessions: In these cases, academic tutoring and guidance students will take up aspects related modules or subjects you are studying and promoting academic excellence and comprehensive training. The different professionals involved in activities seeking solutions through individualized tutoring for academic problems situations (and possibly personal) and try to target specific students in curricular aspects that will improve their academic performance and make better decisions about its training program.

- Professional orientation sessions: Students are invited to:

- Conferences organized by the Dean on career-specific qualifications with external professionals.
- Presentation UAB Empren program: that has been created to promote attitudes generating ideas and business plans of all members of the university community, and aims to promote entrepreneurship and self-employment.
- conferences and briefings, specifically addressed to all students of the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine in co-operation with the Employment Office Campus on the job search: resume writing and presentation, preparation for a job interview, job opportunities abroad, with a moderate number of attendees
- Sessions of entrepreneurship: UAB wants to support and help all those people from the university to generate new business ideas.